Dear Congressman Coburn:

As you know, AMPAC was privileged to recently support your reelection effort in the way of a Benchmark Survey, completed by Cole, Hargrave, Snodgrass and Associates and presented to you on June 18, 1996.

This research will be reported as an in-kind contribution from AMPAC to you on our June, 1996 report (due July 20, 1996) to the Federal Election Commission. You must, therefore, report to the FEC that $650.00 was received from AMPAC in the form of an in-kind 1996 Primary contribution on the above date. If there are questions about this, be sure to let me know.

Also, we have included two copies of a receipt for this material and would appreciate your signing both copies of the receipt and returning one copy to us.

Again, AMPAC was pleased to provide this contribution, and is hopeful of your reelection in November, 1996. I would like to again suggest that you be sure to express your appreciation to the physicians in your District who, by their support to AMPAC, make this contribution possible.

Sincerely,

Kevin Walker
Executive Director and Treasurer

AMPAC is a separate registered fund established by the AMA. Voluntary political contributions by individuals to AMPAC should be written on personal checks. Funds from corporations cannot be used for contributions and expenditures in Federal elections. Corporate checks will be passed to a separate AMA account for political education and other non-election activities. Contributions are not limited to the suggested amount. Neither AMA nor its constituent state associations, with favor or disadvantage anyone based upon the amount or failure to make AMPAC contributions. Voluntary political contributions are subject to limitations of FEC regulations Section 110.1, 110.2 and 110.6 (federal regulations require this notice).

Contributions to AMPAC are not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes.
